The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday May 17, to Saturday May 21, 1763.

St. James's, May 18.

THIS Day a moſt numerous Body of the Merchants and Traders of the City of London waited on His Majeſty; and being introduced to His Majeſty by the Earl Gower, Lord Chamberlain of the Houſehold, Edmund Boehm, Eſq; made their Compliments in the following Addreſs.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Merchants and Traders of the City of London.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, the Merchants and Traders of the City of London, inviolably attached by every Tie of Duty and Gratitude to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, beg Leave to return your Majeſty our humble Thanks for the conſtant and effectual Support and Protection we enjoyed during the late War; and at the ſame Time, moſt ſincerely to congratulate your Majeſty on the Succeſs of your truly paternal and humane Endeavours to reſtore to your People, and to Europe in general, the Bleſſings of Peace.

Through the Care and Attention of Government, the National Commerce, amidſt the Tumults and Dangers of the moſt extended War this Country was ever engaged in, has been carried on with a Degree of Security and Succeſs beyond Example: This, however, did not lead us to forget the adverſe Accidents to which the Nature of War continually expoſed us, nor to ceaſe wiſhing for that Stability and Permanency, which Peace alone could give.

We have now the Satisfaction to ſee a War, founded in Juſtice and Neceſſity, proſecuted with Vigour and Glory, at length concluded, on Terms of real and ſolid Advantage, by a Treaty of Peace, every where marked with that Moderation and Equity which afford the faireſt Proſpect of its Continuance.

With Hearts, therefore, full of the higheſt Senſe of your Majeſty's Attention to the general Welfare of your Subjects, as well as to their Commercial Intereſts, and animated with equal Zeal for your Perſon, and Abhorrence of all Diſreſpect to your Dignity, we aſſure your Majeſty, that nothing in our Power ſhall ever be wanting, that may, in any Degree, contribute to render your Majeſty's Reign eaſy and happy over a loyal and grateful People.

To which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to return this moſt gracious Anſwer.

I Receive, with very particular Satisfaction, from ſo numerous and deſerving a Body of My Subjects, theſe dutiful Aſſurances of their Zeal for My Perſon, and Government: Theſe Cordial Expreſſions of their Abhorrence of all Diſreſpect to My Crown, and Dignity.

The Welfare of My People, and the Security of the flouriſhing and extenſive Commerce of My Kingdoms, have ever been, and ever will be, the Invariable Objects of My Care, and Attention: Theſe invaluable Bleſſings, I truſt, will be rendered ſtable and permanent by the Peace which I have concluded; whereby vaſt Countries are added to the Britiſh Empire, the Improvement of which muſt produce Solid, and Laſting Advantages to all My Subjects.

The Merchants, and Traders, of the City of London, may firmly rely on My Conſtant Protection, and Favour; and on My Steady Reſolution ever to ſupport them, in the full and free Enjoyment of their Rights, Liberties, and Privileges.

They were all moſt graciouſly received; and had the Honour to kiſs His Majeſty's Hand.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 20th of May, 1763,

PRESENT,

The KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

THIS Day the Right Honourable Francis Lord Le Deſpenſer, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Buckingham, took the Oaths appointed to be taken, inſtead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION.

For Pardoning and Diſcharging Soldiers now in Cuſtody for Deſertion.

GEORGE R.

WHereas divers Soldiers, duly enliſted, or in Pay as Soldiers, in certain Regiments and Military Corps, which have been ſince diſbanded or diſembodied, and in other Regiments or Corps now ſubſiſting, have deſerted Our Service, and thereby incurred the Penalties reſpectively inflicted for ſuch Offence, by ſeveral Acts of Parliament paſſed for puniſhing Mutiny and Deſertion: And whereas many of the ſaid Deſerters have been apprehended at various Times, and committed for ſafe Cuſtody to the ſeveral Goals or Priſons belonging to the Counties, Towns, or Places, where ſuch Deſerters have been found or apprehended, to the End that they might be proceeded againſt according to Law; the Names of which Deſerters have been, from Time to Time, tranſmitted to our Secretary at War for the Time being, purſuant to the Proviſions of ſuch Acts of Parliament made for Puniſhing Mutiny and Deſertion as aforeſaid: And whereas We are graciouſly diſpoſed to extend Our Royal Mercy to the ſaid Offenders, who may be hereafter uſeful to their Country in following their honeſt and lawful Occupations, in Caſe they are enabled thereto, by receiving Our free Pardon; and being diſcharged out of Cuſtody in Conſequence thereof; We have therefore thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy-Council, to iſſue this Our Royal Proclamation, and We do hereby for Us, Our Heirs and Succeſſors, pardon and remit all and every ſuch Offence and Offences of Deſertion, from any ſuch Regiments or Military Corps, committed by any Perſon or Perſons now in Cuſtody as aforeſaid: And We do alſo releaſe and diſcharge the ſaid Offenders from all Proſecutions, Impriſonments, and Penalties, commenced or incurred, for, or by reaſon of any ſuch Offence or Offences: And We do hereby, by and with the Advice of Our ſaid Privy-Council, declare Our farther Pleaſure, and do will and require all and every Goaler and Goalers, Keeper and Keepers of any Goal, Houſe of Correction, or Priſon, where any ſuch Deſerter or Deſerters is or are in Cuſtody, to diſcharge him or them forthwith, without Fee or Reward, upon receiving a Certificate or Certificates under the Hand of Our Secretary at War for the Time being, that the Name or Names of ſuch Deſerter or Deſerters, do appear to him to have been tranſmitted to the War Office, purſuant to the Proviſions of any of the ſaid Acts. And We hereby further Charge and Command

Command every ſuch Goaler or Keeper, within the Space of Seven Days after receiving any ſuch Certificate as aforeſaid, to make a Return to Our Secretary at War for the Time being, of what ſuch Goaler or Keeper ſhall have done in Purſuance of ſuch Certificate, and of this Our Royal Proclamation.—Provided always, that nothing herein contained ſhall extend to diſcharge any Perſon or Perſons ſo in Cuſtody for any ſuch Offence of Deſertion, from any Crime, Cauſe, or Matter, for which he or they ſhall have been lawfully committed, or detained in the Cuſtody of any ſuch Goaler or Keeper, other than ſuch Offence or Offences of Deſertion.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the 20th Day of May, 1763, in the Third Year of Our Reign.

GOD Save the KING.

St. James's, May 21.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Juſtice, Aldermen, Capital and Inferior Burgeſſes of the Borough and Town of Taunton, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Earl of Egremont, Recorder of the ſaid Borough, and the Earl of Farnham and Lawrence Sullivan, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Juſtice, Aldermen, Capital and Inferior Burgeſſes of the Borough and Town of Taunton, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

MAY it pleaſe your Majeſty to permit us, the Mayor, Juſtice, Aldermen, Capital and Inferior Burgeſſes of the Borough and Town of Taunton, to join with the reſt of your loyal and grateful Subjects in congratulating your Majeſty on the happy Return of Peace to theſe your Kingdoms.

Your Majeſty, ever attentive to the real Intereſt, and ſtudious to promote the Welfare and Proſperity of your People, has crowned all the former Inſtances of your Paternal Goodneſs, in putting an End to the Calamities of War, by a Peace Clear, Equitable, and Honourable, and as firm as human Wiſdom could dictate.

All we can offer to your Majeſty, in Return for this great and ineſtimable Bleſſing, is our firm Attachment to your Sacred Perſon, an inviolable Fidelity to your moſt beneficent Government, and a chearful and ready Obedience to the Laws. And we, with all Humility, beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall not ceaſe to implore the Divine Providence for the long Continuance, the Glory and Happineſs of your Majeſty' Reign.

Given under our Common Seal this 14th of May, 1763.

The following Addreſs of the Miniſters and Elders of the Synod of Lothian and Tweedale, having been tranſmitted by John Erſkine, Moderator, to the Earl of Halifax, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Miniſters and Elders of the Synod of Lothian and Tweedale, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the happy Reſtoration of Peace, after all the Toils and Struggles of a dangerous but Succeſsful War.

As its Operations were extenſive, ſo we have had frequent Occaſion to admire the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Councils, and the noble Efforts of Thoſe who were intruſted with the Execution of great and well-concerted Plans; whilſt, at the ſame Time, we revered the Divine Providence, and gave Thanks to Almighty God for that unparalleled Succeſs, with which He was pleaſed to crown your Arms by Sea and Land.

We rejoice with our Fellow-Subjects in thoſe ſignal Advantages that are obtained by that Juſt and Honourable Peace, which your Majeſty hath concluded;—Advantages far ſuperior to thoſe of any former Treaties of Peace, that are recorded in the Britiſh Hiſtory. When we conſider, in particular, the State of Safety and Tranquillity in which your American Dominions are now eſtabliſhed, we ſee the great End for which the War was originally undertaken, fully attained by the late Definitive Treaty, and hope, that the Light of the Goſpel ſhall ſoon be diffuſed through the Indian Tribes, and the Kingdom of Truth, Righteouſneſs and Peace extended to the moſt diſtant Nations.

Animated with a warm Senſe of your Majeſty's Paternal Care of your People, and of the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your Auſpicious Reign, it ſhall be our particular Study to inſtil into the Minds of all over whom we have Influence, juſt Sentiments of Gratitude, and Loyalty to their King, of Love to the happy Conſtitution of Government under which they are placed, and of cordial Subjection to the Laws of their Country.

That God, who hath hitherto ſignally bleſſed your Majeſty's Councils, may continue to direct and bleſs them; that you may long enjoy the Fruits of that Peace, which, through your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Goodneſs, is now reſtored to theſe Lands; that you may reign in the Hearts of a free and happy People; and that your Royal Offspring may fill the Britiſh Throne to the lateſt Ages, is the fervent Prayer of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects,

The Miniſters and Elders of the Synod of Lothian and Tweedale.

Signed in our Name, and at our Appointment, by John Erſkine, Moderator.

Edinburgh, May 11, 1763.

The following Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Council of the City of Aberdeen, having been tranſmitted to the Earl of Halifax, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Council of the City of Aberdeen.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Council of the City of Aberdeen, invited by the preſent happy Occaſion, beg Leave to pour out our Congratulations at your Majeſty's Throne.

We look up with Admiration to that Nobleneſs of Soul, and to thoſe Royal Virtues, which your Majeſty has diſplayed in the Conduct of the late War, and diſplayed ſtill more illuſtriouſly, if poſſible, in Crowning the unparalleled Succeſſes of the War, with a Glorious Peace; a Peace, eſtabliſhed on Terms ſo juſt and equitable, and, at the ſame Time, ſo fit for promoting the Security, extending the Commerce,

Commerce, and increaſing the Strength of Britain, that every Enemy muſt be both aſhamed and afraid to interrupt her Quiet.

We rejoice in the full Aſſurance which we have, that under ſo great and ſo good a King, all our Liberties will ever be protected, and the trueſt Intereſt of the Nation invariably and vigorouſly purſued. Poſſeſſed with theſe Sentiments, we ſhall always do our utmoſt in our Sphere to promote the End of your Majeſty's Government; and by theſe Sentiments, we find ourſelves conſtrained to pray, that your Majeſty's Reign may be very long, that your Royal Family may continue to flouriſh more and more, and that all your Subjects may at all Times, with grateful Hearts, admire and ſecond the gracious Intentions of their Patriot King.

The following Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, Cuſtos Rotulorum, Nobility, Gentry, and Clergy, of the County Palatine of Durham, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Frederick Vane, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, Cuſtos Rotulorum, Nobility, Gentry, and Clergy, of the County Palatine of Durham, do moſt humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence with our moſt cordial Congratulations upon the happy Concluſion of an expenſive, though proſperous War, by a ſafe and honourable Peace; which has at once greatly ſtrengthened and enlarged the Intereſts of your Kingdoms, and withal made your Majeſty the glorious Inſtrument of the Repoſe and Tranquility of Europe.

The numerous and extenſive Advantages, which your Arms have obtained, and your Counſels ſecured, to the Commerce and Wealth of your Dominions, do require our moſt thankful Acknowledgments; and together with them, ſhall command our firmeſt Reſolutions to cultivate as we ought, the Bleſſings of Peace, you have ſo largely beſtowed on us, in the moſt proper and effectual Manner, by a dutiful and zealous Submiſſion to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government; and by an earneſt Endeavour to promote, in our ſeveral Stations, the true Welfare and Harmony of our Country.

May your Majeſty long live to enjoy the pleaſing Fruits of that general Repoſe you have ſo graciouſly indulged to Mankind, and to reign with ſolid Glory and Happineſs in the Hearts of an affectionate and grateful People.

The following Addreſs of the Lord Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Town-Council of the City of Edinburgh, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Town-Council of your City of Edinburgh, beg Leave to preſent to your Majeſty our humble Addreſs of Congratulation on the happy Concluſion of a bloody and expenſive War, in which, at your Acceſſion to the Throne, you found your Kingdoms engaged.

We admire no leſs the judicious Care with which your Majeſty, in adjuſting the Preliminary Articles of Peace, has watched over the Intereſts of your People, than we do the Firmneſs and Magnanimity with which, in the Midſt of growing Difficulties, engaged with new Enemies, and loaded with the Defence of your Allies, you ſuſtained the Burden of Military Operations, the moſt extenſive that ever any Nation maintained, and under the Favour of Almighty God, have procured theſe uninterrupted Succeſſes with which your Majeſty's Arms have to the laſt been attended.

The Glories of Victory inflame the Ambition of Princes, and they dazzle the Imaginations of Men; but the Sighs of Diſtreſs often mix with the Shouts of Triumph; and he who feels, like the Father of a Free People, may, even amidſt the Tide of Succeſs, diſcern that Rock upon which Nations have ſplit; happily for your Majeſty's Kingdoms, this Danger has been perceived before its Approach, whilſt no domeſtick Advantage was yet ſacrificed to Foreign Conqueſt; whilſt the publick Burden was borne with Chearfulneſs and Zeal; whilſt the Cloud of National Incumbrance, which, in the Anticipation of your future Revenue, was gathering over the State, may yet be diſpelled; whilſt we had not experienced the fluctuating Chances of War, your Majeſty has reſettled the Foundations of publick Proſperity, and reaped for your People the Fruits of Victory, whilſt they were yet freſh and entire.

Brought now under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government, to profit by the Advantages which your Arms and your Councils have gained, the diſtinguiſhing Superiority acquired to our Commercial Eſtabliſhments in Aſia; the new Sources of Commerce, which are opened to us by the Acquiſition of an important Settlement on the Coaſt of Africa; the Additions which are made to our Poſſeſſions in the American Iſlands; the Advantages which are ſtipulated for your Majeſty's People, in a Branch of Trade, which has been long a Subject of Diſpute, and fruitleſs Negociation with a neighbouing Kingdom; the Aſcendant, which you have procured in the Neighbourhood of Seas, that offer tempting Rewards to the induſtrious Mariner, and by encouraging Navigation, promiſe to enlarge the Foundations of our Naval Strength; the Enlargement of Empire, which your Majeſty has gained beyond the Frontier of your ancient Colonies, by which they are ſecured from Encroachment and Moleſtation, by which your Subjects are ſuffered to poſſeſs a mighty Range of Territory, furniſhed with Harbours, Navigable Rivers, and every Conveniency for Settlement or Commerce, ſtretching through all the favourable Climates of the Globe, fitted to yield all the Variety of Production, which are uſeful to human Life, and every Way prepared to become the Nurſery of Men, who diffuſing over a great Continent the Spirit and Genius of their Mother-Country, and ſecure under her Protection, bring ample Returns of Strength, in the Number of her growing People, and the Increaſe of her Commerce, without any Hazard of a Diſappointment to our Hopes, from the Delays, Neglects or Difficulties that might occur, if any Thing was left to the ſubſequent Negotiation of Commiſſaries, it muſt be our own Fault, if the Eſtabliſhment of a Peace, the moſt advantageous that ever was obtained by a Britiſh Monarch, is not followed by many Years of Felicity, in the ſucceſsful Purſuit of every National Object, in the Enjoyment of a happy Conſtitution, which your Majeſty is ſo well qualified, and ſo happily diſpoſed to maintain and to ſtrengthen.

It is our ardent and our devout Prayer to Almighty God, that He may be pleaſed long to preſerve your Majeſty; that you may continue to improve the Advantages of that Peace, which your Wiſdom has obtained; tained; that you may be to an affectionate People, the ſhining Pattern of every Virtue, and teach by your Example on the Throne, with what ſacred Regard the Duties of every Station ſhould be performed by thoſe, who are entruſted with any Part of the Government of a great and free Nation.

Signed in Name, Preſence, and by Appointment of the Council, at Edinburgh, the 11th of May, 1763, the Seal of the City being hereunto affixed.

G. Drummond, Provoſt.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Huntingdon, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Earl of Sandwich their Recorder, and Edward Montagu and Robert Jones, Eſqrs. their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of your Majeſty's ancient Borough of Huntingdon.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of your ancient Borough of Huntingdon, beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon with our warmeſt Congratulations upon the Bleſſings of Peace being reſtored to us, after ſo bloody and expenſive, though juſt and neceſſary, War.

We acknowledge, with the moſt affectionate Gratitude, your Majeſty's Paternal Tenderneſs in giving Reſt to your People, who had almoſt exhauſted their Strength, (but which they will never fail to exert) in vindicating the Honour and Dignity of your Crown; aſſerting the Rights of your Kingdoms, maintaining the Independency of your Allies, and guarding the Liberties of Europe.

Theſe great and generous Purpoſes are now moſt happily effected by the Concluſion of a Peace, in which the Wiſdom, Firmneſs and Magnanimity of your Majeſty's Councils will ever be glorioufly recorded.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that nothing ſhall be wanting, on our Part, to expreſs our Senſe of the great Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's juſt and mild Adminiſtration; and we cannot more effectually declare our preſent Attachment to our Country and Conſtitution, than by an unſhaken Fidelity and Affection to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, a ſteady Obedience to the Laws; and, by diſcouraging every Principle and Practice that may in any Manner tend to diſunite us, or in the leaſt diminiſh our Love and Gratitude to a Prince, who is truly the Father of his Country.

Given under our Common Seal of the ſaid Borough, the Tenth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-three.

The following Addreſs of the Bailiff and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Stockbridge, has been preſented to His Majeſty by George Preſcott and Nicholas Linwood, Eſqrs. their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE the Bailiff and Burgeſſes of the ancient Borough of Stockbridge, approach your Sacred Majeſty with our ſincere Congratulations on the Concluſion of a General Peace: An Event we have, on former Occaſions, expreſſed our hearty Wiſhes for; although by our Situation we do not immediately reap all thoſe Benefits, which the Bleſſing of Peace procures to Manufacturing and Trading Towns; yet we have a tender Feeling for our Fellow-Subjects; we rejoice in the End put to the Ravages of War Abroad, and in the juſt Expectation of Harmony and Concord at Home: We doubt not that the ſame Wiſdom, which in your Majeſty's Councils brought this great Work to Perfection, will continue to preſide over them, and by improving every Commercial and National Advantage in our new Acquiſitions, we may in due Time hope for ſome Relief from thoſe heavy Burthens, which the Exigency of State rendered neceſſary, relying entirely on your Majeſty's Paternal Goodneſs, which we have already experienced in ſo many Inſtances, we ardently wiſh, that your Reign may continue Glorious, Peaceable, and Long, ever accompanied with the Love and Veneration of a loyal and free People; and that your Deſcendants may enjoy the ſame Felicity to lateſt Poſterity.

The following Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Elgin and Forres, has been preſented to His Majeſty by James Grant, Eſq; their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Elgin and Forres.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Elgin and Forres, humbly beg Leave to approach your Sacred Perſon, and with Hearts full of Duty, Affection, and Gratitude, to congratulate you on the happy Concluſion of the late Peace, which reflects the greateſt Honour on the Wiſdom, Juſtice and Steadineſs of your Majeſty's Councils, and which, we hope and truſt, will be as laſting as it is honourable, and productive of the moſt valuable Bleſſings, not only to your Majeſty's Subjects, but to all Europe.

It is with peculiar Pleaſure that we review the Glories of the late juſt and neceſſary War, in which, by the Divine Bleſſing on your Majeſty's Arms, you have raiſed the Credit and Reputation of this Nation, and ſhewn your Subjects, that when engaged in a juſt Cauſe, and conducted by wiſe and united Councils, they have nothing to fear from the united Compacts of thoſe Kingdoms, that were formerly their Dread and Terror. During that Period, a more impartial and perfect Knowledge has been acquired of your Majeſty's moſt valuable and wide-extended Colonies, the Fame, Splendor, and Generoſity of the Britiſh Empire has been carried to barbarous Nations formerly unexplored and unknown, large Acquiſitions of Territory have been made to your Majeſty's Dominions, and great Additions to Naval Strength, Wealth and Commerce of your Subjects.

On all theſe Accounts we beg Leave, Great Sire, to expreſs our higheſt Admiration and moſt unfeigned Joy, but ſtill more for your putting an End to the Ravages and Depopulations, which muſt attend every War, by the late Treaty of Peace; by which your Majeſty has accompliſhed the great End for which the War was undertaken, and ſecured to your Subjects the quiet Poſſeſſion of their Rights and Liberties.

It ſhall be our conſtant Care and Study to cultivate in ourſelves, and where ever our Influence extends, the moſt inviolable Duty, Loyalty and Affection, ſo juſtly due to the beſt of Kings, and to promote that Spirit of Concord, true Religion, and Obedience to the Laws, ſo warmly recommended from the Throne, and ſo neceſſary to the Happineſs of a Free, a Powerful, and Flouriſhing Kingdom.

And we put up our moſt ſincere and ardent Prayers to the Great Governor of the World, that your Majeſty's Reign over theſe Realms may be prolonged in great Quiet and Proſperity; and that the future Part of it may be as celebrated for the further Promoting thoſe peaceful Arts and Inſtructions, to which, in Part, we owe our late Succeſſes, as it has hitherto been renowned for thoſe of War.

The following Addreſs of the Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, and Commiſſioners of Supply of the County of Inverneſs, has been preſented to His Majeſty by James Grant, Eſq; being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, and Commiſſioners of Supply of the County of Inverneſs, met at Inverneſs the 30th Day of April, 1763.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, and Commiſſioners of Supply of the County of Inverneſs, beg Leave to approach the Throne, with our hearty Congratulations on the happy Event of concluding a long, bloody, and expenſive War, by a glorious and advantageous Peace: A Peace, by which the Britiſh Empire is extended greatly, its Frontiers clearly determined, and all the Sparks, that might kindle a new War, are, as far as human Prudence or Foreſight can provide, happily extinguiſhed.

Permit us, Sire, to expreſs the high Veneration we entertain for that true Magnanimity which determined your Majeſty to beſtow the Bleſſings of Peace on your own Kingdoms, and pave the Way for communicating the ſame to the reſt of Europe; at a Time, when the Reputation of your Arms was at the higheſt; when new Enemies only produced additional Triumps, and when the Zeal of your faithful Subjects exerted itſelf in proportioning the neceſſary Supplies to the growing Exigencies of the State: That noble Humanity and Generoſity which made you prefer the relieving your Subjects, to the diſtreſſing your already humbled Enemies, and the ſolid Glory of a good and gracious King, to the vain Applauſe of a great Conqueror.

Penetrated with the higheſt Sentiments of Loyalty, Duty and Gratitude, it ſhall be our conſtant Care to diffuſe them as far as our Influence and Example can reach, that your Majeſty's moſt gracious Purpoſe, of improving the Advantages of Peace, may meet with no Interruption from any Jarrs among your Subjects.

That Almighty God may long preſerve your Majeſty as an ineſtimable Bleſſing to your Kingdoms, that you may continue to reign glorioufly over a free, happy, and united People, and that there may never be wanting a Prince deſcended from your Majeſty to inherit the Crown of theſe Realms, and the many Royal Virtues by which you add a Luſtre to it, is our earneſt and joint Prayer.

Signed in the Name and by the Appointment of the Meeting by Æneas Mackintoſh, of Mackintoſh, their Præſes.

Æneas Mackintoſh, P.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Bayliffs, and Commonalty of the City of Coventry, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bayliffs, and Commonalty of the City of Coventry.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bayliffs, and Commonalty of the City of Coventry, beg Leave humbly to approach your Royal Perſon with our ſincere Congratulations on the Re-eſtabliſhment of Peace on ſafe and honourable Conditions.

The great and ſignal Succeſs which has attended your Majeſty's Arms, in the Proſecution of an expenſive, though juſt and neceſſary War, left your faithful Subjects nothing to wiſh for or deſire, but that it might be the happy Means of reſtoring the publick Tranquillity, and ſettling it upon a ſure and ſolid Foundation.

We therefore approach the Throne with the warmeſt Sentiments of Duty and Gratitude to your Majeſty, for the happy Accompliſhment of this great and important Event, by which a Period is put to the various Calamities of War, and which we truſt will be attended with the moſt beneficial Conſequences to your People.

Permit us, Sir, to take the Opportunity the preſent happy Occaſion affords us, to expreſs our dutiful Regard to your Majeſty, and the warm and grateful Senſe we have of the Bleſſings we enjoy under your auſpicious Reign. Deſirous to render your People happy, you have made their Good, the End and Purpoſe of all your Actions. This has, in a peculiar Manner, endeared you to all your Subjects, and inſpired them with every Sentiment of Duty and Reſpect to your Majeſty, that can influence the Minds, or poſſeſs the Hearts, of a happy, grateful, and affectionate People.

May your Majeſty long live to enjoy and promote the Bleſſings of Peace, and to continue us a flouriſhing and a happy People under your auſpicious Government; and may your Royal Deſcendants, inherit with your Majeſty's Virtues, the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, to lateſt Generations.

DR. JAMES's Powder for FEVERS, the Small Pox, Meaſles, Pleuriſies, Quinſies, acute Rheumatiſms, Colds, and all inflammatory Diſorders, as well as for thoſe which are called Nervous, Hypochondriac, and Hyſteric, Price 2 s. 6 d. the Paper; with good Allowance to thoſe who buy it for charitable Uſes, or to ſell again.

 Experience having taught, that this Medicine, which is a ſafe and certain Cure for the above Diſorders, is better prepared for Sea Service (and more convenient) in Bottles, than made up as uſual in Marble Paper, the Commiſſioners, who have the Direction of the Medicines employed in the Navy, have ordered this Powder to be ſo preſerved for the Uſe of all His Majeſty's Ships of War; and a large Quantity is alſo made up in the ſame Manner for Merchants and Captains of Trading Ships, as well as for thoſe who are any way concerned in Voyages, or the Sea Service.

This Medicine is ſold only by J. Newbery, at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church Yard, and by thoſe who are empowered by him to ſell it in the ſeveral Towns of Great Britain, Ireland, and the Colonies.

Of whom may be had,

Dr. James's Milk Powder for the Diſorders above-mentioned, which is prepared from the ſame Materials as the other Powder, but ſo contrived as to have little or no ſenſible Operation, and upon that Account is the more proper for Women under certain Circumſtances, Infants, and thoſe whoſe Conſtitutions are extremely delicate. And it is more than probable that this Powder, by taking off the Acrimony, will prevent Purging in the Small Pox, Price 2 s. 6 d.
